

"Books Alive" -Camp Tyler Foundation

Spring 2010 Sessions-February to May

Books Alive brings books to life as students enjoy classic Newberry or Caldecott Award winning books while experiencing the outdoors at Camp Tyler! Teachers can select one of the "Books Alive" themes for their K-4th grade students to enjoy.

The program creates excitement and memories that will last a lifetime as students actively participate in the stories!

Themes to Select From-$7.00 per student

Farm and Garden—Students will love the farm where they can feed the chickens, milk the cow, play with the goats, groom the pony and plant seeds in the garden.

Native American—Students will enjoy being in a large tepee and learning about Native American traditions. Activities include face painting, tribal rattles, shooting an arrow and learning about native foods and symbols.

Nature-Hiking—Students will explore the beautiful trails at Camp Tyler and can choose activities such as planting trees, studying animal tracks, enjoying discovery hiking and cane pole fishing.

"Books Alive" Schedule

900 Arrival to Camp Tyler
930 Books Alive Station/Activity
1130 Lunch (optional-$5.00 per lunch)
1230 Departure

Partnership with Librarians and Teachers

Librarians and Teachers will be asked to help promote the "Books Alive" sessions and assist with the scheduling of classes.

Each class that attends with 15 or more students will earn points for their school. The schools with the most classes participating will be eligible to win scholarship dollars for their school's library. Awards will be announced in May and posted on the Camp Tyler web-site.
